

HEALTH FACILITIES:

The University has Infirmary to take care of students first aid and emergency medical assistance with required facility, routine medication and qualified nursing staff. In addition, the University has empanelled with Navachethana Hospital, which is nearby the University for diagnosis and specialized treatment for the students, if needed.